

QUALITY BROKER

NORWAY

THE COMPANY

Quality Broker was founded in 1992 by Norway's Olympic Gold Medalist Flying Dutchman, Mr Peder Lunde, and is owned by Norwegian investors. The firm has built a reputation as a leading Norwegian broking house and holds all necessary licences to operate as an approved broking house. It has been a full member of Worldwide Broker Network (WBN) since 1995. In 2006 Quality Broker established an office in Stockholm.

The company has 25 employees, including four employee benefit consultants, and a turnover of €4 million.
